

More about ESL Accuplacer

The ESL Accuplacer (College Board) is one of the assessments that non-native speakers take to determine placement. At St. Charles Community College, we use the ESL Accuplacer Reading, Language Use, and Listening in combination with an ESL Faculty interview and ESL essay.

At this point, there is no practice test for the ESL Accuplacer, but you can find out more about what is on the test by going to the following site:

Students can also prepare for the ESL Accuplacer by studying practice Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) books and websites. This is also helpful for those who may need to report TOEFL scores.
